Workshops

Creative Exploring: using simple art materials to deepen the theme, Here I Am

Katie Low

Katy Low is a trained spiritual accompanier and giver of the Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius Loyola. After having had an experience of working with clay in prayer it ignited a desire to explore this material more so undertook formal training in 2000-4. She has also participated in a 'Using Art Therapeutically' course in 2010-11 at the Bield where she also co-facilitates art in prayer workshops with Melitta Bosworth. The theme 'Here I Am' resonates deeply with a specific encouragement to answer a call to the marginalised, vulnerable and poor in society.

Waiting in worship

Linda Fraser

Linda Fraser has been Musical Director and Praise Leader of Mount Florida, now Clincarthill Church for more years that she cares to remember! Having completed a degree in music, she studied to become a primary teacher and having brought up four children returned to teach music in primary schools. She loves nothing better than to lead people into the presence of God in worship, prayer and healing.

She is thrilled to lead praise on Sundays alongside her daughter Claire who is leading worship today.

Living in the here and now, whilst believing for more to come!

Julie Golding

Julie gave her life to Jesus nearly 30 years ago and has taken many journeys with Him since that day. Waiting is something she is very familiar with, but over the years Jesus has encouraged her to enjoy the journey and not to just focus on the destination. In this workshop she hopes to share some of the hints and tips she has picked up along the way. Julie has two part time jobs with Volunteer Edinburgh as Core Services Manager and with Glasgow Prophetic Centre and their Inner Healing Ministry. She is a single mum to 4 grown up children."

Keynote Speaker - Joan Kilpatrick

Joan Kilpatrick has been a Reader (Lay Preacher) with the Church of Scotland for the past ten years and loves enabling people on their faith journey. She also works for the Ignatian

Spirituality Centre as their part-time secretary where she trained as a spiritual director and leading groups in prayer. Joan has been married to Graham for 38 years and they have two grown up sons. The theme of 'I Am Waiting For ...' is something she has been interested in since her husband's continued illness and hearing the words of the song 'Strength will rise as we wait upon the Lord'. Joan will hope to explore this theme through Scripture and life's situations which we all encounter.
